Beauty Survival Kit

Put these items in a small makeup bag in your purse so you always have them handy. If you have to pull an unexpected all nighter you will at least have the essential supplies.

- Clear lip gloss or chap stick for soft kissable lips
- Dental floss and a toothpick. There's nothing more embarrassing than meeting the man of your dreams with spinach between your teeth!
- Mini mouth wash. Garlic or coffee breath can be rinsed away before that job interview.
- Perfume sample - so you can freshen up any time. Remember scent is the strongest memory trigger!
- Mini hairspray. Never have a bad hair day!
- Visine and coverup stick - not only gets the red out of tired eyes but can also tone down an angry red blemish enough to conceal it with a dab of coverup.
- Kleenex - great for blotting lips and face to remove that four o'clock shine. Also you never know when allergies may hit.
- Mini-lotion for those dry hands or flaky legs.
- Clear nail polish to fix any runs or snags you may get in your hose. (It's a good idea to keep an extra pair of hose in your car, just in case)
- Travel size toothbrush and paste.
- Mini sewing kit with safety pins. Be prepared for that loose button or a snag on your skirt!
- Tampon or mini pad - just in case.
- Bronzing powder. It can be used as blush or eye shadow and even under clear gloss on your lips.
- Mascara - in the event of a tear jerker movie.
- Mini deodorant. Keep dry and fresh in any crisis.
